

Artists' Open Studios of Northeast CT

Supporting art, artists and a valuable tradition in this Quiet Corner of Connecticut

Tour Dates: November 27 – 29 and December 5 & 6

Easy Navigation:

We are pleased to report positive feedback from participants who have already registered on our new website. Comments speak to the ease of navigation and of uploading of images. As of March 12th, twenty artists have registered on our new site.

Returning Participants:

If you participated last year, you are in the database of the new site. Start your registration process with aos2015 as your password. Then, on your profile page, change your password.

If you do not register by the May 1st deadline, your profile will be deleted from the website.

Speaking of Deadlines:
May 1st is only 39 days
from today (3/12)

New Participants:

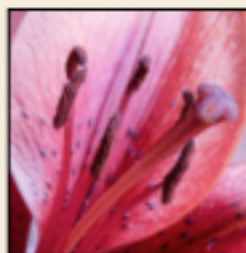

Welcome to AOS for the 2015 tour. We believe that you will find the process of registration quite simple. If you have any questions, please contact Aline Hoffman at optmst@icloud.com.

Group Shows:

Existing groups are listed in the registration process. If you are interested in participating in one of these groups, you must get approval from the listed contact person. If you want to form a new group, please let me know, and I will add it to the available options.
